

DOGS HALL OF FAME

This is the hall of fame of dogs posted and rated by the Twitter influencer, WeRateDogs. This user tweets humorous reviews of people's dogs and rates them on a scale of ten. The tweets are more hilarious because the dogs are almost always rated above ten. Why, you ask? Because they're good dogs! Dogs are adorably cute pets. Would you really want to rate them less than 10? Don't be a hoodlum.

LIKES VS. RETWEETS

A good number of the dogs who were most liked were also the most retweeted.

If your dog features on both lists, please give them two extra bones today.

There is a great relationship between the number of likes and retweets. If we really like a dog, we'd most likely retweet the post.
